

The Center for Visual Arts
Fall/Early Winter 2008/09
(631) 363-2983

General Information: Our art room is a noncompetitive environment where self-expression and a variety of art materials are explored. Students are taught various drawing, painting and sculpting techniques.

All classes have limited seating so early registration is suggested.

Our waiting area is small. It would be greatly appreciated if children were not dropped off early for class.

Students are permitted 2 make-up classes within the semester. Make-up classes must be scheduled in advance and be made up within 2 weeks of when class was missed.

To Register: Fill in and cut out the registration form below and mail it along with your check written out to your total amount. Please make your check out to The Center for Visual Arts. Full payment upon registration is preferred, however if it is more convenient you may pay half at the time of registration and the remaining amount within 2 weeks of registration. All accounts must be paid in full by the first week of October.

Sibling and immediate family members will receive 15% off of the 2nd student.

Art materials are included in the price of the program with the exception of our adult program.
